Some more information about this list

At the end of each working day, HelloGold will publish on our website the list of bars we hold for customers, stating each bar number for identification. The kilo bars will have bar numbers assigned within two working days following allocation by the vaulting provider - Bullion Star International Pte Ltd.

All gold bars owned by HelloGold are protected in a secure vaulting facility in Singapore which has been tested and authenticated by Bureau Veritas and meets London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) vaulting requirements.

Independent verification of our listing can be found on the vaulting company's website at <https://www.bullionstar.com/myaccount/audit> and search for account number 7647.
